Your First CSE 1020 Lab

1. Sit at a workstation in room CSEB 1004 or 1006 and log-in with the username `newuser`. Press `Enter` twice. (No password is necessary.)

2. Follow the prompts and enter your name, student number, and other information when required.

3. Create a password (maximum of 8 characters) for your new account. Memorize your password and keep it a secret. No one else (not even a lab monitor) should know your password.

4. Take this paper to the lab monitor in room 1006 and show him/her your photo ID.

    My CSE username is: `cse91`

    Your new account will be activated within 20-30 minutes.

5. To login to a workstation, type the username given to you by the lab monitor. Press `Enter`. As you type your password, NOTHING WILL APPEAR AND THE CURSOR WILL NOT MOVE. Continue typing your password and finish by pressing `Enter` again.

6. Start a web browser by pressing . Go to http://www.cse.yorku.ca/course/1020/ and complete the Guided Tour.

7. When finished, log-off by right-clicking the desktop, selecting `Quit` (at the bottom of the menu), and clicking `OK`.
